

SERVICE PRACTICUM OPPORTUNITY

Service Practicum placements involve volunteering as an experience of personal growth, vocational discernment, and community engagement. Placement types vary depending on student interest and program major. If the option below interests you, reach out to the contact person to begin the conversation (*denotes their preferred contact method).

Website: columbiabc.edu/experiential-learning
Experiential Learning Director: Jeff Peters – jeff.peters@columbiabc.edu
Service Practicum Assistant: Kelly Ens – kelly.ens@columbiabc.edu

ORGANIZATION: A Rocha Canada

CONTACT PERSON: Ruth Des Cotes

EMAIL: ruth.descotes@arocha.ca

PHONE:

POSITION TITLE: Environmental Educational Assistant

JOB DESCRIPTION: The education assistant would be helping to lead small groups (once trained) in outdoor exploration activities, typically with elementary school classes for field trips. They might also help with community events or professional day programs.

SKILLS REQUIRED: Some experience with children is helpful, as well as initiative, willingness to learn and work as part of a team.

CRIMINAL RECORD

CHECK REQ'D: Yes

NOTES: If interested, we would need you to complete our volunteer information forms. Our programs typically run Tues-Fridays during the work day, with occasional Saturday programs.

SERVICE LOCATION: South Surrey

TRANSPORTATION: Student must have own transportation

DAY(S) OF THE

WEEK: Day is negotiable and/or may vary week to week

TIME FRAME: Between 9am and 3pm, typically