

SERVICE PRACTICUM OPPORTUNITY

Service Practicum placements involve volunteering as an experience of personal growth, vocational discernment, and community engagement. Placement types vary depending on student interest and program major. If the option below interests you, reach out to the contact person to begin the conversation (*denotes their preferred contact method).

Website: columbiabc.edu/experiential-learning

Experiential Learning Director: Jeff Peters – jeff.peters@columbiabc.edu

Service Practicum Assistant: Kelly Ens – kelly.ens@columbiabc.edu

ORGANIZATION: Abbotsford Restorative Justice and Advocacy Association (ARJAA)

CONTACT PERSON: Mentoring Coordinator

EMAIL: mentoring@arjaa.org

PHONE: 604-864-4820

POSITION TITLE: Mentor

JOB DESCRIPTION: Volunteer mentors are matched with at-risk youth in our community to be a positive support person for the vulnerable youth. Mentors are provided with training on how to be a mentor and are expected to volunteer for one year.

SKILLS REQUIRED: Good communication, openness, non-judgmental, desire to work with at-risk youth, reliable and willing to learn.

CRIMINAL RECORD CHECK REQ'D: Yes

NOTES: We do require a police security clearance as this organization runs out of the Abbotsford Police Department.

SERVICE LOCATION: Abbotsford

TRANSPORTATION: Student must have own transportation

DAY(S) OF THE WEEK: Any day during the week

TIME FRAME: 3-9pm or mornings